Welcome to the AABC Alaska Senior All-Star Game!

The Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches would like to welcome the fans, players, and coaches to the 2019 AABC Senior All-Star Games. This is an exciting culmination to a great basketball career before graduation and future plans. It is our honor to showcase the talent that our state has to offer and to promote the game, athletes and coaches.

With that being said, we could not put this type of premier event without the help of so many people and companies willing to sponsor this event. We would like to especially thank Arctic Slope Regional Corporation (ASRC) and Conoco Phillips for supporting our mission and making it possible through their donations. Please also take time to support the various other businesses that you will find throughout the program that support our student-athletes.

This is the 9th consecutive year that we have hosted the AABC Senior All-Star Games. During that time we have had the privilege to watch a multitude of the all-stars go on from here and play basketball at the next level. We are grateful to the college coaches who have made their way to the last frontier to recruit our athletes and welcome them into your programs.

We are also proud to induct Jeannie Hebert-Truax as the past player into our Hall of Fame as well as three profound coaches: Joe Tremarello, George Roderick and Craig Jung. These coaches have had an immeasurable impact on the people they have come into contact with and the players they have coached. We are forever grateful for the impact they have had on the game of basketball in the state of Alaska.

Congratulations to the Senior all-stars; we hope you have an amazing and memorable weekend and we wish you the best with whatever life brings you in the future.

Wasilla High activities director, girls basketball head coach among those honored by Alaska associations

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

WASILLA — Stacia Rustad, a former Kenai Central High School multisport standout who is now the activities director at Wasilla High School, received a special phone call recently. Craig Jung, Rustad's head coach during her days with the Kenai girls basketball program and her mentor, had some news.

Rustad had been elected to the Alaska High School Hall of Fame.

"I am honored," Rustad said earlier this week.

But the fact that Jung was able to deliver the news made it that much better, Rustad said.

"He was an important figure to me as a young athlete," Rustad said. "He helped me pursue my dreams of playing Division I basketball. He and I are super close."

Jung was inducted into the Alaska High School Hall of Fame in 2012, after he was nominated by Rustad. Now Rustad is a member thanks to a nomination from Jung.

Jung has also earned his place in another hall. He is one of four who will be inducted later in this month in the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame. Jung, former Fairbanks basketball mentors Joe Tremarello and George Roderick will be inducted as coaches. Wasilla High School girls head coach Jeannie Hebert-Truax, a star at both North Pole and Monroe Catholic as a high school athlete, will be inducted as a player.

In addition to her duties as activities director, Rustad is an assistant on the Hebert-Truax Wasilla girls. Before making the move to Wasilla High prior to the 2015-16 school year, Rustad was the head coach of the Kenai girls program for six years. During those six years, Jung was her assistant coach. Rustad just finished her fourth season coaching alongside Hebert-Truax, a member of multiple halls of fame as both a coach and a player. Rustad said she has been fortunate to be able to spend her basketball playing and coaching career in Alaska with the two of the most respected people in the Alaska basketball community.

"It's the best of both worlds," Rustad said. "I am very bias when it comes to Coach Jung. He was a huge part of getting me where I was as a player and a person. He's a role model for me."

Rustad said coaching alongside Hebert-Truax has been a great experience, and has learned a great deal while working with the state's winningest high school girls basketball coach.

Rustad is one of seven athletes part of the Alaska High School Hall of Fame's 2019 class. Chugiak's Alev Kelter and Cody Tanner, Juneau-Douglas' Justin Dorn, Homer's Phil Engebretsen, Bethel's Randy Hanson and Ninilchik's Austin Vanderford will also be inducted.

Engebretsen is a former boys basketball head coach at Colony High School. His younger brother Ryan is currently the head boys basketball coach at Wasilla.

Rustad said coaching alongside Hebert-Truax has been a great experience, and has learned a great deal while working with the state's winningest high school girls basketball coach.

Rustad competed in basketball, cross-country running, volleyball and track and field at Kenai. Rustad, a 1992 graduate of Kenai Central, helped lead the Kards to the 1991 4A girls state title. She also earned a Region III individual title in cross-country running.

Rustad played Division I basketball at the University of Maine, where she helped the Black Bears advance to the NCAA tournament in 1995 and 1996.

Hebert-Truax, who played in four girls' basketball state title games during her high school career, is the lone player this year to be inducted by the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches into its hall of fame. Hebert-Truax said she's honored to be recognized and remembered for her work on the floor during her high school career. Hebert-Truax played in the 4A girls state championship game in each of the four years of high school. As a freshman and sophomore, she was part of a North Pole program that finished as the state runner-up. She helped Monroe win it all as a junior and senior in 1987 and 1988.

Hebert-Truax also helped Monroe with a state volleyball title in 1988.

Hebert-Truax played college basketball at Division I University of Miami (Florida), and finished her career ranked second in program history in assists, third in scoring, and fourth in steals. She also helped the Hurricanes earn their first berth into the NCAA tournament in 1989.

Hebert-Truax is also a member of the Alaska High School Hall of Fame, Alaska Sports Hall of Fame, University of Miami Hall of Fame and was named a Legend by the Atlantic Coast Conference.

As a coach, Hebert-Truax hit another milestone during the 2018-19 season. With a 50-48 win over Chugiak Feb. 18, Hebert-Truax earned the 500th win of her career as a girls basketball head coach in Alaska. Hebert-Truax, who recently finished her 24th season, is not only the first to hit 500 wins, but she is also the only coach in Alaska girls basketball history with at least 400 wins.

Hebert-Truax will be inducted into the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame April 13 at the Wells Fargo Arena in Anchorage, during the association's day of senior all-star games. Jung, Tremarello and Roderick will also be inducted.

Jung spent 23 years coaching girls basketball at Kenai. He was named the Region III Coach of the Year three times, and was also the state coach of the year in 1991.

Tremarello, known best as 'Coach T', spent 17 years with Lathrop basketball. He also played and coached at UAF.

Roderick was the head coach of the UAF men's basketball team for 20 years.

Jazmyn Byfuglien

High School: Tri-Valley

Parent(s)/Guardian(s): Stacy Isaacson and Desmond Isaacson

Future Plans: I am planning on attending UAF this fall, but have not yet declared a major.

Other Sports/Activities: Along with basketball, I participate in volleyball, track, and soccer.

High School Accomplishments: Throughout my four years of high school, I have maintained a 3.8 GPA. In addition, I have been the captain of my basketball team every year and have received several all tournament awards throughout the many sports tournaments I have attended. I am currently the president of my Senior Class and of the Student Body. Along with these accomplishments, in the last four years, I have lettered in each varsity sport: volleyball, track, soccer, and basketball.

People to Thank: I would like to give a special thanks to my amazing support system consisting of my amazing parents and siblings, and the members of my community. All of these people have provided endless support for me throughout my high school years, and I couldn't have accomplished anything without their constant encouragement and advice. Thank you guys, I love you all!

Katelyn DelaRosa

High School: Nenana City Public School

Parent(s)/Guardian(s): Lila Peterson and Melvin DelaRosa

Future Plans: My future plans are to go to college and figure out what I want to do in life.

Other Sports/Activities: I was involved in Native Youth Olympics, soccer, and volleyball.

High School Accomplishments: Academic Honors throughout high school and meeting people from all over the state.

People to Thank: First of all I would like to thank all of my coaches that have pushed me to be the best I can be and to push through all the hard times in all of the sports that I participated in. My mentors, whether it be teachers in school or family members, that helped me excel in school and in sports, and most importantly my mom. She has been in my corner through hardships, and pure joy.

Shaylene Egoak

High School: Akiak High School

Parent(s)/Guardian(s): Carlene Egoak and Kurtis George

Future Plans: Go to school to get certified in Heavy Equipment

Other Sports/Activities: Volleyball and NYO

High School Accomplishments: I received an award for Science and Technology my junior year and also inclusion in Honor roll for all my years in High School.

People to Thank: I would like to thank my parents Carlene and Kurtis, my grandparents Janet and Lott Egoak and John George and Clara Wassilie for all the support that you have shown to me all these years. I'd also like to thank my coaches Clifton and Kimberly Smith.

Julianne Estes

High School: Lumen Christi High School

Parent(s)/Guardian(s): James and Jessica Estes

Future Plans: Following my graduation from Lumen Christi, I will attend UAA and have been accepted into their sonogram technician program this fall.

Other Sports/Activities: In addition to playing basketball, I also played soccer and volleyball throughout high school. I was captain on both my basketball and volleyball teams. I am co-editor for our school yearbook and a member of student government serving on the activities committee at my school.

High School Accomplishments: During my high school years some accomplishments that I am most proud of are being consistently on honor roll, leading our student mentorship program, and receiving our school's "and Then Some Award" which you earn for going above and beyond while helping and serving others.

People to Thank: I would like to thank my parents for always encouraging and supporting me to do what I love but I especially want to thank my basketball coach, Nikelle Sherman. Nikelle has been my coach since I was in eighth grade and has taught me almost everything I know. She has taught me how to be a better player all around from helping me improve with my fundamentals to showing how important working as a team is. She has also taught me that basketball isn't just a sport but it teaches you a lot of life lessons such as always pushing yourself to do the best you can and how to work with your teammates even in hard times. This year we welcomed Kim Mork as our assistant coach and she was a great addition to our team and helped me gain more confidence as a ball handler and I really appreciate what I learned from her.

2019 All-Star Girls 1A & 2A

Julie Frankson

High School: Nenana City Public School

Parent(s)/Guardian(s): Chester Frankson and Christina Tippin

Future Plans: Go to college, unsure about my major, and take fun adventures.

People to Thank: My parents, family, coach, supporters, school and God.

Abigail Fry

High School: Nunamiut School

Parent(s)/Guardian(s): Brooks and Katie Fry

Future Plans: Upon graduation I will be attending college. I will be working towards a degree in English and Geology. (Go rocks!) Eventually, I will teach high school english and explore the world under the guise of a geologist in the summer.

Other Sports/Activities: I am a year round athlete, participating in whichever sport is in season. This way, I participate in varsity cross country, varsity volleyball, varsity basketball, senior Native Youth Olympics, and rec. league soccer during the summer. Along with sports, I am also in the North Slope Borough Mayors Youth Advisory Council, and have been part of Student Council in the past.

High School Accomplishments: As a high school student athlete I have maintained a 4.0 GPA and received superintendent's honor roll while participating in cross country, volleyball, basketball and NYO respectively. My cross country seasons resulted in 3 appearances at state by placing in the top 7 in my conference. My volleyball team and I earned a spot at state 3 times by winning our conference. At the most recent state tournament I received player of the game and my team earned the sportsmanship award in a previous year. This year's basketball season ended with my team winning our conference and advancing to state for our 2nd appearance in my high school career. We received the academic award, and I earned the good sport award and player of the game honors. Prior to this season, I played with Team Alaska at the Arctic Winter Games, hosted last year in Canada, where we won the Gold Medal. Along the way, I have earned multiple all-tourney awards for both volleyball and basketball. Finally, my season concludes with Native Youth Olympics (NYO) where I am currently the defending state seal hop champion. Along with the awards I feel that my greatest personal achievements have been learning about the joy hard work brings and making friends from all over the state.

People to Thank: I would like to thank my Heavenly Father for the opportunities I have been given, my parents for their love, support, and taking the time to be my coach, and other coaches from around the state such as Bea Klaich, Nick Hanson, Colby and Devon Way, Jeremy Arnhart, and others for their tips, support, and encouragement.

People to Thank: I would like to thank from the bottom of my heart; my Uncle Ron (Cunningham), for taking the time to teach me to believe in myself, to become a better player, and to be a confident person, on and off of the court. To my aunts, uncles, and grandparents, thank you for blowing off the roof of your house while listening to my games on the radio, or watching on-line. I love you.

To the Wolfpack's #1 fan, uncle Randal, I would love to thank you for motivating me to do my best, to make you proud (my first two points in a game were always for you).

I'd also like to thank my mom and my brother, for being my two biggest supporters and for helping me throughout my 5 years of high school sports; your encouragement, help through fundraising, and following me all over the state, means more than you know. Mama, this season was for you.

Finally, I would like to say thank you to all of my teammates, friends, coaches, and Wolfpack fans, for being the best supporters, and biggest encouragers.

King Cove junior named player of the year

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

Elaina Mack has a ritual. She fires three, after three, after three, until she hits a goal.

"She makes 100 three-pointers every day," King Cove head coach Gary Lamar said recently.

And the extra work has paid off for the King Cove junior. Mack is shooting 55 percent from the floor and 43 percent from behind the arc.

"That's says a lot," Lamar said. "There's an old saying in coaching. If you can shoot 40 from two and 32 from three, you've got a shooter."

Lamar's King Cove squad has a shooter, and the player tabbed as the best in the state. Mack has been named the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 1A Girls Player of the Year.

"She's the real deal," Lamar said.

Lamar said he's been coaching basketball for 35 years, the bulk of that time in Texas.

"She's the best shooter I've ever had," Lamar said. "That says a lot."

And Mack has the statistics to back it up. The 5-foot-7 guard is averaging 37.5 points per game, a state-best according to statistics provided on asaa365.com. Mack has scored 50 or more points in a game four times this season, including a season-high 57 against Newhalen. And she has also performed at a high level against teams from higher classifications. Mack scored 50 in a win over 2A Unalaska, 34 against 3A Seward and 37 against 3A Redington. Mack also poured in 39 against the Dimond junior varsity, a squad part of a Lynx program that won the 4A state title last year.

Mack led King Cove to a 26-0 record and the Aleutian Chain Conference title. King Cove is also the top seed in the 2019 1A girls state tournament.

Lamar said, while Mack has tremendous talent and potential, the junior is also part of a core group that has helped Mack flourish. Mack is also averaging more than five assists per game. Lamar said Mack has the knack for finding the open player on the floor.

"Her ball handling skills are what allows her to do a lot of this," Lamar said.

Lamar said Mack also has great vision on the floor.

"That allows her to find where the girls come open," Lamar said.

Lamar said Mack is also a student-athlete with high character and humility.

"She plays with her heart. She never celebrates. She could finish with 50 points or 34 points, she walks off with the same humility," Lamar said.

Cordova standout a leader on and off the court

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

Late in the season as the Cordova Wolverines were fighting illness and injury, their senior leader, Abby Bourgeois, was forced to the sideline with an injury of her own.

The Wolverines suffered late-season losses, but Bourgeois battled and found her way back to the floor.

And it could not have come at a better time. Bourgeois returned for the Interior Conference Championships and helped Cordova upset top-seeded Nenana in the region final.

"Nobody expected us to beat Nenana," Cordova head coach Brad Sjostedt said.

The return of Bourgeois was definitely a key to the win, Sjostedt said. Now, Bourgeois is not only seen as a top player on her team, but also among the best in her class. Bourgeois has been named to the first team of the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 2A Girls All-State Team.

Bourgeois hit the late free throws that gave Cordova the 29-27 win over Nenana in the conference final. But that wasn't the only impact the senior made in the win.

"Abby's ability to weave through their defense, get a few transition points, a couple of steals," Sjostedt said.

Bourgeois is not the player that's going to pour in 20 every night, Sjostedt said, but the senior brings so much more to the court.

"She's more of an all-around playmaker," Sjostedt said.

Bourgeois handles the ball, is among the team's leading rebounders and leads the team on and off the court, Sjostedt said.

"She makes the biggest impact on our team," Sjostedt said.

Sjostedt said Bourgeois can lead in a variety of ways.

"She's not bossy. She doesn't have to be that way for people to know to follow her direction," Sjostedt said.

Shishmaref standout named 1A's top player

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

Edward Kokeok garnered a rare honor for a freshman when the Shishmaref standout graduated to the level of high school basketball. Kokeok was named a captain as a ninth grader. In the last three years, Kokeok has worked his way into the top tier of 1A players. Now, Kokeok is receiving an ultimate honor.

Kokeok has been named the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 1A Boys Player of the Year.

"I would say, I think he ranks in the top 2, if not the best," Shishmaref head coach Tyler Ivanoff said before the final votes were tallied.

And Kokeok still has another year of high school ball, and a high ceiling, Ivanoff said.

"I think he could play college ball," Ivanoff said.

Kokeok is among the state scoring leaders at the 1A level, averaging about 25 points per game. Ivanoff said Kokeok, at 6-foot, plays like a small forward. But in reality, he can do much more.

"He can play all positions," Ivanoff said.

Kokeok's offensive statistics pop, with 24 points and four assists per game. He's also pulling down about seven boards a game, while shooting better than 60 percent from the floor.

But there's more.

"His strength, he focuses on defense," Ivanoff said. "He's a great defensive player."

Kokeok's value exceeds statistics, Ivanoff said.

"He's a natural team leader. He leads by example," Ivanoff said. "He works extra hard on everything he does."

Ivanoff said Kokeok is also an all-around athlete. In the fall, Kokeok won the district meet and qualified for the state cross-country running meet. He also stands out on his school's Mixed 6 volleyball squad.

Glennallen father and son earn state honors

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

Aidan Fields grew up on the court, as part of a basketball family, a Glennallen basketball family. Now Fields, can share some recognition with his dad, James Fields, the head coach of the Glennallen boys' basketball squad. Fields has been named to the first team of the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 2A Boys All-State Team. Fields has been named the 2A boys coach of the year.

Aidan's step-sister, Arianna, a former Glennallen standout, was the 2015 2A girls player of the year. His younger brother Jamison is a junior and starter on the Glennallen varsity team. There are three more children in the Fields family, including 6-year-old CJ, who already wears a size eight shoe.

"Future Glennallen player for sure," James said.

James said, while there are difficulties that come from coaching your own children, basketball is a way for the Fields family to bond.

"They handle it well," James said of his sons. "I have high expectations for them. They take my criticisms. For that I'm proud of them. We don't take it home."

James has been involved with Glennallen basketball four about 12 years. Eric Stockhausen, who is now the head coach of the Ketchikan boys program, got James involved. With his dad coaching, Aidan grew up in the gym. Now Aidan is among the best in the state.

James said his son is his team's main ball handler and distributor. He can move the ball and he can score. Aidan is a skilled player, but James said it's how his son handles himself on the floor that stands out to people.

"Most people notice his very calm demeanor," James said.

James called Aidan a, "free spirit," and said his son doesn't allow his emotions to dictate his play.

"He doesn't get up, he doesn't get down. Whether he's making a great play or turning the ball over, he stays even."

Aidan is averaging about 18 points and four rebounds a game. The 5-foot-10 guard is also shooting nearly 40 percent from beyond the arc. Aidan also helped Glennallen earn the No. 2 seed in the 2A boys state tournament bracket.

VALLEY BASKETBALL OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION

The Valley Basketball Officials Association (VBOA) was formed in 2009. VBOA's mission is to recruit and train basketball officials locally. VBOA assigns floor and table officials for both middle and high school level games. VBOA is proud to provide volunteer officials for the 9th year in a row for the Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches Senior All-Star Games.

Roger Steinbrecher Coaching Integrity Award

The 2019 Roger Steinbrecher Coaching Integrity Award is given to Barb Lyons for demonstrating outstanding sportsmanship, leadership, camaraderie, and respect.

Barb Lyons
2019 Roger Steinbrecher
Coaching Integrity
Award Recipient

Barb Lyons, a Petersburg native taught 31 years at Valdez City Schools, in both the High School and Middle School. Barb graduated from Petersburg High School and played basketball at UAF her Freshman year. She later moved on to broadcasting and coaching for UAF for the remainder of her years. She is married to her best friend Bob Peca.

Barb coached Valdez basketball for 25 years – 21 years as Varsity Girls Coach, 4 years as Junior Varsity Girls Coach and 7 years as Middle School Girls Coach.

Barb won the A.C.S. Tournament 10 times; won the Valdez Elks Tournament 8 times, and had 8 second place finishes. She won regionals 7 times and had 6 second place finishes. Barb had three State Championships. Barb was voted as Coach of the Year in 1993-94.

After retiring, Barb continues to work as Athletic Director for Valdez City Schools and is active in the community.

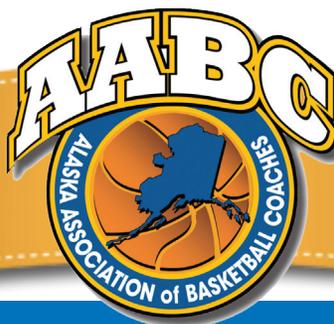

The AABC Integrity Award is given annually to an Alaskan coach who has demonstrated the following ideals/characteristics:

Sportsmanship- behavior that is ethical, appropriate, polite, and fair. He/she has followed all of state athletic association rules, and is gracious in victory or defeat.

Leadership- teaches life lessons and model's character traits like honesty, respect, and personal responsibility.

Camaraderie- is a positive force in the coaching community whose interactions with fellow coaches help to promote fellowship and the game of basketball.

Respect- consistently maintains a positive approach in his/her interactions with their own team, game officials, opposing players/coaches, and fans.

Craig Jung

Craig Jung began teaching science and coaching girls basketball at Kenai Central High School in 1976. For the next 23 years, Craig pushed his teams to be the best they could be. During his coaching career he was honored four times as Region III Coach of the Year. He was also Alaska State 4A Coach of the Year in 1991.

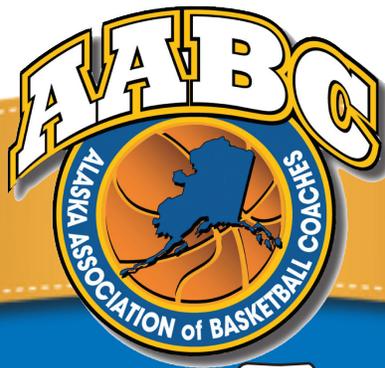

His team won the State 4A Girls basketball title that year as well. He won 2 region titles and qualified for State 8 times.

Craig was an intense coach, quick to correct but just as quick to congratulate. His players thrived under his coaching style. During his coaching career Craig coached many talented athletes that became members of the NLC first team All-Conference teams, as well as, All-State teams. He also had many of his players go on to play college basketball, most notably, Stacia Rustad and Mendy Benson, both of whom played and graduated from DIVISION 1 universities in the Mid 90's.

Coach Jung retired from teaching in 1991 and officially retired from coaching in 2017.

He was also inducted into the ASAA Hall of Fame in 2012 and was a recipient of the Gold Lifetime Pass in 2012 as well.

Jeannie Hebert-Truax

Six state championships as a coach.
Three Alaska player of the year awards.
Two state championships as a player.
One NCAA Division 1 All-America Award

Do the math and you get a snapshot of Jeannie Hebert-Truax's athletic career.

A game-changer at every level, Hebert-Truax is one of Alaska's greatest high school players, one of its greatest college players and one of its greatest high school coaches. She was the first player, boy or girl, to win three Alaska prep player of the year awards, claiming the first while at North Pole High School and the second two while at Monroe Catholic, where she led the Rams to consecutive state titles in 1987 and 1988.

Those accomplishments earned her a spot in the Alaska High School Hall of Fame.

“The Game-Changer”

The Miami Hurricanes won the recruiting war for the 5-foot-8 play-making guard, and Hebert-Truax did not disappoint. By the time she graduated, she ranked second in program history in assists (694), third in scoring (1,766) and fourth in steals (237), plus she helped Miami to its first NCAA tournament berth in 1989.

Those accomplishments earned her a spot in the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame.

Armed with two masters degrees, she returned to Alaska, where Wasilla High hired her in 1994 to teach math. The next year she became the school’s head girls coach. In 2007, she led the Warriors to a state championship, and from 2011-2014 she guided them to three in a row. Through 19 seasons, she and the Warriors won 74 percent of their games.

Those accomplishments – plus the stellar high school and stellar college career – landed her in the Alaska Sports Hall of Fame. She is the first woman enshrined for the sport of basketball.

Hebert-Truax is a made-in-Alaska success story – she was born in Glennallen, raised in Tok, went to high school in Fairbanks and became a championship coach in Wasilla.

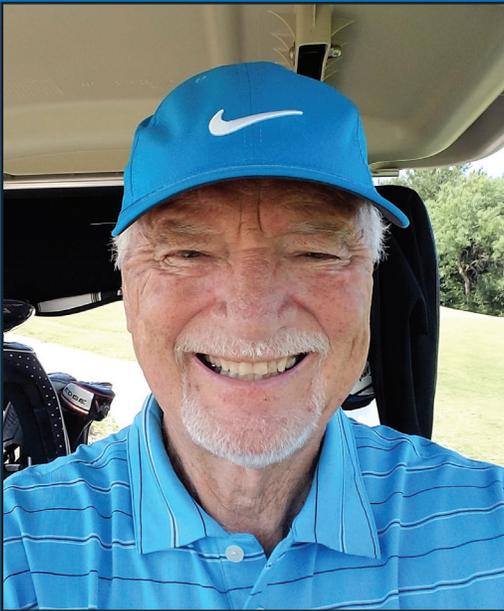

“I’ve gone through life and worked hard at what I did, and I think all these accolades have just come from that,” she said. “It’s just what my mom and dad engraved in me. If you want to achieve something you go out and work for it.”

George T. Roderick

After serving two years in the US Army, Ft. Wainwright, Alaska, George T. Roderick was hired as head basketball coach/athletic director at Monroe High School in 1971. During the following five years, Coach Roderick's Rams won four conference titles including three third place finishes and one runner up at the State Championships. During the 1973 season, MHS completed the campaign with a 30-3 record including a first ever 9-1 Christmas basketball trip to the Hawaiian Islands. From 1971-1976, the Rams compiled a 118-36 won-loss record, often competing against the large schools in Alaska and many out-of-state teams. The Rams won numerous tournaments that featured out-of-state teams. During Coach Roderick's years at Monroe, the Rams moved from Class B (small schools) regional alignment to competing in regionals that included the larger schools in the State.

The spring of 1976 Coach Roderick accepted an assistant men's basketball position at the University of Alaska Fairbanks, which was the beginning of a 20 year career, eight as an assistant & 12 as head men's basketball coach. During Coach Roderick tenure, the Nanook basketball program elevated from NAIA to NCAA Division 2 competition. In 1989 the Nanooks captured the school's first ever Great Northwest Championship and a trip to the NCAA regional play offs. The team finished rated #1 in the region and Roderick was awarded conference and regional Coach of the Year.

Prior to retiring in 1996, Coach Roderick founded and named the Top of the World Classic basketball tournament featuring 7 Division 1 teams and host UAF Nanooks, and also served as it's tournament director for seven years. Due to NCAA rule changes, the tournament was discontinued after 12 successful years.

Fairbanks, UAF, the basketball program as well as the State of Alaska received national recognition and exposure.

Coach Roderick and his wife Joanie are retired and live on a golf course in New Braunfels, Texas.

Joe Tremarello

Joe Tremarello moved to Alaska in the summer of 1950. His father was in the Army and was stationed at Ladd Field.

Joe was on the Fairbanks High School varsity basketball team for the next three years. By his junior year, he was described as one of the “shortest starting forwards in the league” and a “sharp-shooter.” That year the Malemites lost the Western Alaska title to Anchorage by one point. “Joey” was named to the 1952 Western Alaska Class A All-Tournament team.

In the 1952-53 season, the Malemites beat Anchorage twice in the double elimination tournament for the Western Alaska title and swept Douglas High School in three games for the Territorial Class A championship. Joe was captain of the team and won the First National Bank of Anchorage Sportsmanship trophy as well as the Fairbanks Daily News-Miner Sportsmanship trophy.

He attended Eastern Washington College of Education for one year and then returned to Alaska and enrolled at the University of Alaska in 1954. He was a starter on the UA basketball team for 4 years and was captain of the team that won its first intercollegiate game on December 23, 1957, beating EWCE by one point, 71-70.

Joe graduated from the university in 1958 with a Bachelor of Education degree.

For the next two years he taught sixth grade and coached the UA junior varsity basketball team.

In 1960, he began teaching and coaching at Lathrop High School. Besides a full teaching load, initially he coached track and the junior varsity and varsity basketball teams. He led the Lathrop Malemites to a state championship in 1964 and state runner-up in 1966. He compiled a 141-31 record in his seven years as coach at Lathrop. He continued to teach at Lathrop until 1970.

He earned a Master of Education degree from UAF in 1968.

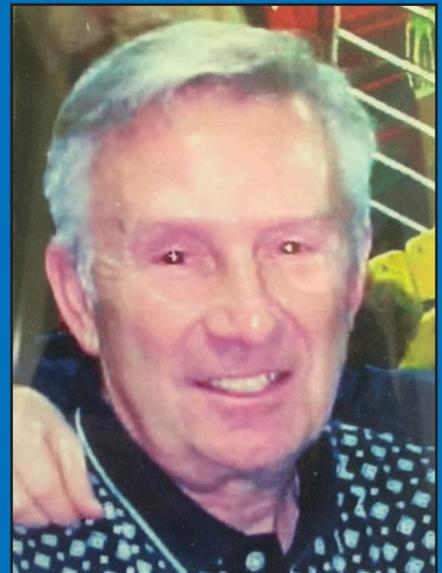

Joe served as director of housing at UAF from 1970-1972. From the fall of 1972 until his retirement from the school district in 1984, he was teacher and later principal at the Fairbanks Alternative High School. All during this time he sponsored and played on a successful city league basketball team.

He was a member of the coaching staff of the UAF women’s basketball team for 7 years and served as head coach for four years. After 6 wins and 21 losses the previous year, his 1991-92 team finished with 18 wins and 6 losses, the best record in UAF women’s basketball history up to that time. At the end of the season he was named NCAA Continental Divide Conference Coach of the Year. From 1995-2012, Joe was associated with the Lathrop High School boys’ basketball team, initially as “official” assistant coach, and, for the majority of the time, as a very dedicated volunteer assistant coach.

Joe was awarded the UAF Alumni Achievement Award in 1991 and was inducted into the UAF Athletic Hall of Fame as a member of the first class. He also was awarded the Fairbanks North Star Borough Recognition of Excellence in 1996.

Joe Tremarello resided in Fairbanks for nearly 63 years with a successful career as an elementary and high school teacher and coach, high school principal, UAF Student Housing Director, UAF women’s basketball coach, businessman and sponsor of city and youth sports. His dedication to Lathrop High School basketball is legendary.

Coach T’s Celebration of Life was held September 23, 2012 at the Davis Concert Hall on the UAF Campus.

Who will be next?

Many athletes who have played in the AABC All-Star Games have gone on to play collegiate basketball. The All-Star Games give athletes an opportunity to showcase their talents, and for those who have not already signed on with a college team, the games and exposure camps give seniors another chance at a scholarship.

Congratulations

to former AABC All-Stars for outstanding college seasons and careers!

Moses Miller

Southwestern Oregon Community College 2017 AABC All-Star

During his freshman year at Southwestern Oregon Community College, Moses Miller earned a spot on the All-Freshman Team South Conference. This was Miller's second all-freshman team honor; he was also named to the South Atlantic Conference's newcomer list and earned SAC Freshman of the Year. He continued his collegiate career with the Laker's and during his sophomore year averaged 19.6 points per game placing Miller in the 9th spot overall in the Northwest Athletic Conference.

Ashlynn Burgess

Wenatchee Valley College 2017 AABC All-Star

As a sophomore, Ashlynn Burgess was named the 2019 Northwest Athletic Conference Basketball Championship Tournament MVP after she led the Wenatchee Valley College Lady Knights to their first championship in 37 years. During the NWAC Championship game, Burgess finished the game with 16 points, five rebounds, four steals, two blocked shots, and one assist. In 33 games, she averaged 18.5 points and 6.9 rebounds and finished her two-year career at Wenatchee Valley's all-time leading scorer with 1,138 points. Burgess is bound for NCAA D2 Seattle Pacific University next season.

Erik Kelly

Peninsula College 2018 AABC All-Star

As a freshman, Erik Kelly brought monster jams and two-handed slams to the Peninsula College Pirates. The guard/forward graduated from Juneau, Alaska in 2018. In 29 games, Kelly ranked 16th overall in offensive rebounds, 30th in defensive rebounds, and 22nd in total rebounds in the Northwest Athletic Conference. Averaging 7.2 rebounds per game, the Pirates were 5-0 early in the season when Kelly's rebounds were in double figures. His season high for scoring on the season was 17 points. Kelly recorded 3 double-doubles this season and looks forward to continuing his dominance at Peninsula College next year.

The Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches

has partnered with three nationally recognized companies to help provide opportunities for our members and coaches.

It's fun to be good. It's rewarding to see your hard work pay off. It's fun to be able to impose your will on your opponent. And most of all, basketball is more fun when you win! At PGC, you'll learn how to have more fun. Not in the sense of silliness or light-hearted pleasure, but the kind of fun that comes from the satisfaction of knowing that you're prepared, and then performing at your best.
 -PGC

PGC Camps have generously offered to partner with the AABC and are leading the basketball industry in developing players. We are excited to work with PGC, and they have generously offered to provide scholarships to both coaches and players from the state of Alaska.

Baron is proud to provide the most advanced championship ring making process in the world. Our 3D designed rings are light-years ahead of the competition, and the difference in quality and craftsmanship is evident in every piece we create.

Every ring design is modeled with proprietary 3D software. Combined, our designers have over 50 years of experience in championship ring design and 3D modeling. With Baron Championship Rings, there are virtually no limitations when it comes to telling your story. If you can dream it, we can build it.

AABC has partnered with Hudl to make video analysis and stat tracking easier. Hudl will breakdown your game and have stats and reports within 24 hours. Please see Jake at the booth during the game or go to hudlassist.com/basketball for more information. .

Galena standout earns first-team all-state honors

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

Earlier this season, Pearle Green scored the 1,000th point of her Galena girls' basketball career. And she's only a junior.

"She's one of the best three-point shooters in the state," Galena head coach David Wightman said. But Green is more than just a shooter. "She's always at the front of our press," Wightman said. "She loves to play defense and offense."

And that all-around game is what draws the attention of Wightman's fellow coaches at the 3A level, and Green has been recognized for her efforts. Green has been named to the first team of the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 3A Girls All-State Team.

"The interesting thing about Pearle is she can pretty much play any position," Wightman said of the 5-foot-7 junior. "If we need points inside, she doesn't even mind posting kids up. She has good post moves even for a guard."

Wightman said Green has put herself in a position to have success.

"The big thing that stands out is her work ethic," Wightman said. "She's been putting in a ton of time."

Wightman said Green has been able to go to camps and spends a tremendous amount of time in the gym during the offseason.

Green is a three-year starter for Galena and has aspirations to play at the next level, Wightman said. She is also the first Galena girls player to reach 1,000 points since former Galena standout Jenna Buchanan, the 2012 3A girls player of the year, hit the milestone. Buchanan also played college basketball at UAA.

"I think she has dreams to follow in Jenna's footsteps," Wightman said.

Wightman said Green excels on and off the court. Green currently carries a 4.0 grade point average.

"She's just a great kid. Positive attitude, very coachable," Wightman said.

Dimond star named state's top player for third straight year

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

Another year, another batch of honors for Dimond star Alissa Pili.

About two weeks after she was named the Gatorade Alaska Girls' Basketball Player of the Year for the third straight year, Pili has been named the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches for the third consecutive season.

"Alissa Pili is a fantastic basketball player," South Anchorage head coach Larry Wilson said in a press release issued by Gatorade. "She's a great scorer, she grabs a lot of rebounds and she's stronger than everybody. What gets overshadowed by all of the points is her passing, which is the best I've seen up here."

Pili also passed the former leading scorer in Alaska girls' basketball history in February. Former Chugiak standout Brit Jacobson had held the state's career scoring mark with 2,290 total points. But Pili coasted by that and has spent the final weeks of the season building herself a cushion at the top of the list.

Pili, who helped the defending state champion Lynx earn the No. 1 seed in the 2019 4A state tournament, is averaging 28 points and 16 rebounds as a senior.

This is also the fourth straight year Pili has earned first-team all-state honors.

Pili is also among a handful of Alaska seniors prepared to make the jump to the Division I level next year. Pili has signed her National Letter of Intent to play for Southern California.

Anchorage Christian's top shooter named state's top player

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

It doesn't take long to figure at least one thing out about Orlando Lozano.

The Anchorage Christian School senior can shoot the basketball.

"If we're just doing a shooting contest, I'm picking him," ACS head coach Zack Madren said.

Madren said he honestly could not think of a better pure shooter than Lozano in the state right now. But there is more to Lozano's game than just shooting, and coaches across the state have recognized that. Lozano has been named the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 3A Boys Player of the Year.

Lozano enters the state tournament leading his team with an average of 17 points per game, according to statistics on asaa365.com. He has nearly 400 total points this season, and the majority have come from beyond the arc. Lozano has hit 91 threes, while shooting about 45 percent from three. Madren said of Lozano's overall growth and maturity as a player includes his shot selection.

"He used to just jack'm," Madren said. "Now he picks and chooses his best time to shoot."

It's obviously no secret that Lozano can shoot the ball, Madren said, and the Lions take that into consideration.

"I know a lot of other coaches game plan for that" Madren said. "Many times we've used him as a decoy, and he's happy to do it."

Lozano is also second on his team with 70 assists.

"He's a team-first guy," Madren said. "He could very easily want to dominate the basketball, take the most shots. He's very unselfish, very willing to make that extra pass."

Madren said Lozano brings a confidence to the floor stemming from the time he has put in.

"He puts in a lot of work in the offseason, a lot of work in practice and on his own time," Madren said.

Lozano has also shown a great deal of maturity as a senior.

"He calms us down," Madren said. "He's a great teammate on and off the floor."

Colony High senior Sullivan Menard has been named the Gatorade Alaska Boys Basketball Player of the Year.

By Jeremiah Bartz | Frontiersman.com

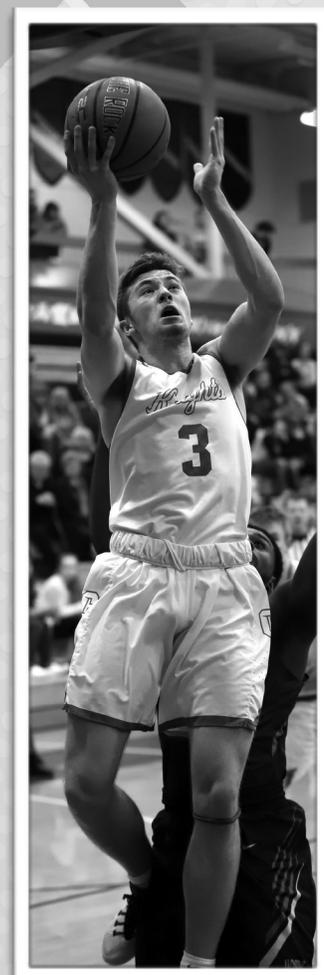

PALMER — Sullivan Menard has all of the skills necessary to play basketball at a high level, Colony head coach Tom Berg said. But the Knights mentor said there is something that separates his senior standout from the remainder of the pack.

"A lot of guys have the skills, but he does it in a more intense way," Berg said. "His motor and attitude is what puts him over the top. It's what makes him elite." And that tenacity is a reason the Colony senior has garnered an illustrious honor. Menard has been named the Knight's Taxidermy/Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches 4A Boys Player of the year. This comes days after Menard earned Gatorade Alaska Boys Basketball Player of the Year honors.

"He does it faster than most other guys. When you think about really good players, what separates is his intensity, energy, effort and intuition. He has all of those traits."

Berg also praised the basketball IQ of Menard, who also boasts a 4.02 grade point average off the court. Menard, a 6-foot-3 and 180-pound senior, is averaging 15.8 points, 5.1 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 3.1 steals. He helped the Knights score the No. 2 seed in the 4A state tournament, which starts Thursday in Anchorage.

"Menard can score, rebound, pass and he's a little gritty," West head coach Josh Muehlenkamp said in the press release issued by Gatorade Friday. "He plays and competes the whole tie, and he's got a real edge to him.

matsusports.net

He's long and athletic and he really gets after it on the defensive end too."

Menard has committed to play basketball for Division I DePaul. Menard has a spot as a preferred walk-on for the Chicago, Illinois, school that competes in the Big East Conference.
